CINDY LU

VICE PRESIDENT AND CO-FOUNDER,
THE NOVO GROUP.

Cindy Lu is an innovator in her field and thrives on carving out new "categories" in the services industry.

She is currently the co-founder of The Novo Group, a Milwaukee based Professional Services firm providing recruiting and talent acquisition solutions. The Novo Group is currently ranked by The Business Journal as the largest executive search firm in Wisconsin and also recognized as part of the Milwaukee Metropolitan Association of Commerce's Future 50 in 2006/7. This award is given to companies that have seen extraordinary growth and who are making a great impact in the industries they represent.

CORY NETTLES

PARTNER,
QUARLES & BRADY.

Cory Nettles is a partner in the Corporate Services and Government relations groups with Quarles & Brady LLP. Most recently, he has launched a private equity fund (Generation Growth Capital) that is expected to raise about $30 million to invest in Wisconsin-based companies. He has also served as Governor Jim Doyle's Secretary for the Wisconsin Department of Commerce. As Secretary of Commerce, Nettles managed a wide range of issues for Governor Doyle, including negotiating a $500 million venture capital package, negotiating banking and commercial lending legislation, and negotiating regulatory reform legislation.

TINA CHANG

CHAIRMAN AND CEO, SYSLOGIC.

Tina Chang is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of SysLogic. She has maintained a strong background in business, technology and process development throughout her career in the information technology arena.

In addition to many other distinctions, Tina was presented The Business Journal's "40 Under Forty" award for the difference she has made in her profession and community.

Tina demonstrates a dedication to both local and international communities, as well as professional development, through her leadership with many boards and organizations in the Milwaukee area.
